

How to transfer – Deakin College to Deakin University

Domestic student information

As a Deakin College student, you are fast approaching your next step to a bachelor degree at Deakin University. Whilst studying your diploma at Deakin College you can apply to Deakin University for your preferred course.

FAQs

I'm an international student

Speak to Deakin College about your packaged offer.

I haven't told Deakin University about the Bachelor degree I want to study yet

Just fill out the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer so you can tell Deakin University about your preference.

I've changed my mind about my Bachelor degree

Fill out the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer and we can adjust your course for you.

Deakin University accepts change of preferred courses until one day after you get your results from Deakin College.

My Bachelor degree does not appear on the form

This form shows only the pathway courses available from Deakin College to Deakin University. For any course that is not a pathway you need to:

- Apply for the next best course to your ultimate course
- Investigate course transferring after at least 4 credit points at Deakin University using your Deakin University WAM

When will I be made an offer?

You should get a conditional offer from Deakin University's Admissions and RPL area soon after you apply. This condition will set out when you will need to finish your studies at Deakin College by and your required WAM for entry to Deakin University.

How are courses at Deakin University selected?

When you apply to Deakin University from Deakin College it is selected purely on your Weighted Average Mark (WAM), including any fails you may have on your record. Deakin University cannot vary your WAM or the desired WAM from that advertised.

I will not meet the condition of my offer

If you know you will not meet the WAM then you have a few options:

- Wait until you get your confirmed marks and change your preferred course using the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer.
- Select another course or campus now at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer.
- Have a chat to an adviser at Deakin College about other options. There are advisers at each Deakin College office. But get in early if you think this may happen as they book up!
- Deakin University are able to provide some support services. See deakin.edu.au/life-at-deakin/support-services.

When will I enrol?

When Deakin College release your results they tell Deakin University. It takes Deakin University a week to get ready for you including checking you have met the conditions of entry, and making sure your offer and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is processed so you are ready to enrol.

How do I know what to enrol in?

Deakin University has course maps that you can start now. deakin.edu.au/course-maps

You can get support from our Student Central offices to help you fill these out.
